MASSAPEQUA HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

We, the editors and staff of the 1960 SACHEM, are confident that the carnival which we present to you on the following pages will serve well to record all phases of life at Massapequa High School. At the carnival, as in our high school, we are sure to find a combination of challenge, adventure, and excitement. The carnival presents these many and varied activities mainly for enjoyment, but in high school they are presented also as opportunities for self-improvement and satisfaction. So it is that we welcome you now to our world of friends and memories. Welcome to the carnival!

To the Senior Class,

AT this time it is only natural that you should be thinking of what you will make of yourselves, but remember that everyone else is thinking of what you will make of the world. Your life ahead will require that you continue to prove your worth. It will be a difficult testing ground for the ideas and ideals you possess. It will measure you ultimately as persons by how ardently you cling to those ideals in spite of the problems of your time.

As Massapequa High School's fifth graduating class, you have maintained an excellent academic record and have shown keen interest and ability in extra-curricular activities. Your achievements here give promise that among you may be some of the truly great leaders of tomorrow.

Every member of the Faculty joins me in the hope and prayer that the years that lie ahead will be good to you, and that deserved success will be yours.

Cordially yours,

WARREN M. MCGREGOR,
Principal.

SENIORS

Memories are the rewards of any enjoyable experience. From the carnival we bring home many reminders of breath-taking rides and exciting games of chance. From high school, however, we bring home different memories—memories of our friends, our teachers, and many joyous occasions. In this section of SACHEM we have tried to capture for you these reminders of senior days and senior activities.

Al Tobia, President; Lucille Shapiro, Secretary; Lois Blank, Treasurer; Bob Calhoun, Vice-President.

CLASS ADVISERS—Miss Pinto, Mr. Brasor.

Come one, come all to the Senior Fair!

Senior Class

WITH our Freshman Dance the Class of 1960 embarked on its high school activities. Our Sophomore year began with the hectic planning for the Sophomore Hop. Who can forget working up in the attic for hours making silver mobiles, glittering stars, and gold angels? After a night of "Fascination" we anticipated the increasing expenses of our Class projects and by the spring we created the first Sophomore Spectacular, a coeducational basketball game complete with cheerleaders and "chorus girls."

The Junior year found our class enthusiastic and eager to work. Ideas, ideas, and more ideas and finally came our "Night in Venice." The royal theatrical curtain provided a perfect background for the glittering Grand Canal and colorfully painted buildings. In spite of the rainy weather, the warm Venetian atmosphere and Italian refreshments made our prom both a financial and a social success. Class spirit again outdid the weather when we all did our share to make spring Work Day a profitable project. Because of their outstanding achievements the National Honor Society inducted seventeen of these hard-working Juniors in May.

Enthusiasm and class spirit came to a climax in our all-important Senior Year. Everyone worked diligently to make the Senior Fair a tremendous success. Before anyone could catch his breath Senior Day, the magnificent Senior Ball, and the Senior Banquet had arrived.

The culmination of our high school days was marked by our graduation, the end of four happy and successful years at Massapequa High School.

A VISITOR to the high school on February 11 was probably quite surprised to see students taking over school positions. Actually Massapequa was celebrating Senior Day, an all-important highlight of a fabulous year. After four periods of classes, which Seniors taught, they assembled in the auditorium to enjoy the class history, which was written, produced, and directed by the Seniors themselves. The next attraction was a gala, banquet style luncheon, held in the cafeteria during the last two periods of the day.

Not only did Senior Day serve for enjoyment; it also served as a means of instruction. It taught a concept of personal responsibility in relationship to taking charge of the entire school. Those who took over teaching positions were also introduced to the problems of school personnel. All in all, Senior Day provided valuable experiences as well as enjoyable moments.

Junior Class

THE Junior Class had many hard-working and willing members. By diligent planning and careful organization they successfully carried out their two main projects for the year, the Junior Prom and the Class Work Day.

Odd jobs, such as car-washing, lawn mowing, and house cleaning, kept the participants of Work Day going at a steady pace. Not only did these energetic Juniors help to beautify the community, but also helped to "beautify" their treasury.

The Junior Prom was another highlight of the school year. "Mardi Gras," the exciting theme of their March 5 dance, required much thought and deliberation. The final result, a colorful, southern style grand ballroom, provided a perfect setting for this delightful evening of dancing and entertainment.

THE Honor Club of the Class of 1961 set as its goal a program of service to the school, to the community, and to its members.

In order to fulfill these aims the members acted as ushers at school and community functions, arranged for lectures to be given to the members on various important topics, and visited Hofstra College and Columbia University. Such educational visits and talks were scheduled in order to help the members carefully plan for the years following graduation.

The Junior Honor Club has become not only a symbol of achievement but also a well-organized and active organization.

"Winter Wonderland."

FALL found this year's Sophomore Class entering into the activities and projects for the year with great school and class spirit. The Sophomore Hop and a Christmas Card Sale were two of its most important planned activities.

December brought Christmas and Christmas brought cards, which in turn brought Sophomore salesmen. In every corner of the school and community these energetic workers could be seen selling cards, cards, and more cards. Naturally, the undertaking was a great financial success and paved the way to a fabulous Sophomore Hop.

"Winter Wonderland" was the theme of this most important dance and provided an array of decoration ideas. The result of the efforts of several skillful decorators was a glistening lake surrounded by snow-covered pine trees and sparkling white mountain tops. Music by Joe Priola's Band provided the perfect background for this snowflake fantasy.

Sophomore Honor Club

Advisers.....Mrs. Brown, Mr. McGrath

THE 1960 Sophomore Honor Club began the year by drawing up a roster of activities. At the head of this list were talks on opportunities in higher education given by members of the Guidance and Reading Departments, as well as by visiting speakers. Second was a trip to Adelphi College which gave the students a look at college life; next, the club attended a theatrical production in New York City.

This year's Sophomore Honor Club fulfilled its goal of providing its members with various opportunities for educational advancement and recreation.

ACTIVITIES

Massapequa High School, like our carnival, is a place of bustling activity. Each day presents its own separate adventure. Just as we peer into and enjoy the many attractions of our carnival, we remember the many clubs and extra-curricular activities which afforded us the opportunity for leadership and cooperation so necessary for a successful and enjoyable school year.

Sachem

SACHEM of 1960 is the product of many months of assembling, writing, checking, and double-checking. Working together with the advisers, this year's staff finally achieved their goal, a successful yearbook.

Before the individual sections could begin to take form, however, a theme had to be chosen. The editors and staff considered many suggestions, from cowboys to spacemen, and finally chose "Carnival." Then they were ready to attack the rest of SACHEM, 1960.

The senior editors had over 500 separate problems. This year's Senior Class was the largest Massapequa has ever seen and required many hours of extra work.

The activities editors had their problems also. How often they searched the school asking, "Who's the boy wearing the plaid shirt, standing in the third row of this picture?" Yes, the identification of pictures and the composing of write-ups kept these editors busy.

Sports, the final section of the yearbook, contributed its share of problems. How to take spring and winter sports' pictures early in December occupied the time of both the girls' and boys' sports editors.

Money, money, money! That is what worried the advertising editor and business managers. These eager workers busily hunted down patrons and advertisers to balance the SACHEM budget.

Ken Lamport and Valerie Furst, the co-editors, assumed the major responsibility for assembling the various parts of the yearbook. They, too, had their problem of keeping one step ahead of the deadlines.

In the end, however, we see that SACHEM is more than a mere collection of pictures. It is a permanent history of a year at Massapequa High, an unforgettable year, filled with memories of the experiences and companions of high school life, as well as hopes and dreams for the future.

Mary Ann Lanza and Sandy Taylor, Business Managers; Henry Churchbourne, Advertising Editor; Ted Kaplits, Photography Editor.

Judy Jeffreys and Merrily Marcus, Girls' Sports Co-Editors.

Pete Caillaud and Dave Hewitt, Boys' Sports Co-Editors.

All this would not have been possible, however, without the expert guidance of Miss Bouton.

Four classes before us have thanked this staunch trouper and adviser for her devotion and inspiration. Since this is Miss Bouton's final year as SACHEM adviser, the staff of SACHEM 1960 would add their special plaudits for her untiring efforts and constant encouragement. Each SACHEM staff, in the years which follow, will continue to owe Miss Bouton a debt of gratitude, for SACHEM first came to be under her vigilant direction and guidance. As the calliope gives forth its musical sounds and the carnival lights flicker, the SACHEM staff once more expresses their sincere gratitude to Miss Bouton.

AS this year's General Organization looks back over 1959-1960, it can be proud of its record for making school life more enjoyable for us at Massapequa.

Among the many worthwhile projects sponsored by the G. O. were the Junior Red Cross Drive; the football-poster contest featuring the slogan, "Beat Wantagh"; the first annual Alumni Homecoming; and the traditional Christmas Dance, "Jingle Bell Hop."

Once again the G. O. worked hard to make the Penny-A-Day Drive a success in order to help support its "adopted" Navajo Indian child and Greek war orphan.

Finally, it was with pleasure that the G. O. had the opportunity to play host to students from Canada and Argentina, as a result of its participation in the Herald Tribune Forum.

National Honor Society

SCHOLARSHIP, Leadership, Character, and Service—these are the ideals which are the basis of the National Honor Society.

In order to achieve these standards, the members have served as leaders in clubs and other school organizations and have maintained high scholastic goals. Ushering at many school functions and assisting at the Snack Bar were among the services of the Society.

Two of the outstanding social activities, sponsored by the Society were "The Varsity Drag," the first dance of the year, and two formal teas for the parents of new inductees.

THE CHIEF CHAT underwent two major changes this year. The first was a new, streamlined masthead designed by Lenore Piccininni; the second was the elimination of the job of makeup editor. This year each subject editor handled the entire composition of his own section, from assigning stories to correcting and editing them.

Another innovation was the method of selecting the Athlete of the Month. Instead of being picked from a pre-selected list of players, this year's Athletes were chosen by the editors as those who turned in the most outstanding performances of the month.

The highlight of this year's paper was the special School Election Issue, which published names and pictures of the candidates and their campaign promises.

Creative Writing

Advisers ..... Mr. Dunn, Miss McCarthy

THE Creative Writing Club kept its members busy this year, first with taking pictures for the photography contest in January, and later with the publication of its annual literary magazine, Driftwood, which tried to retain first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association for the third year.

Any student who wishes may submit material for Driftwood. Short stories, poems, and essays are included in the magazine, along with original artistic work.

In addition to these projects, the members met every other week and discussed technique and style of their own and other authors' works.

Dramatics

Adviser ..... Mr. Latvala

THE purposes of the Dramatics Club are to instruct students in the fundamental techniques of the theater and to give them experience in acting and production work.

The fall production, Cyrano de Bergerac by Edmund Rostand, which starred Richard Linzer as Cyrano and Barbara Tolken as Roxanne, was a "heroic comedy." Their spring production was Goodbye, My Fancy.

The Club produced six drama assemblies showing various forms of the theater and participated in the annual Hofstra Shakespeare Festival.

Raymond Burrows

Head Coach ..... Mr. Noble

Assistant Coaches ..... Mr. Cramer, Mr. Finger, Mr. Diange

THE Chiefs preserved our undefeated rivalry with the Wantagh Warriors by downing them 8-7 and ruining their undefeated record. With a final record of 4 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie, the Chiefs had their best season since 1955. The victories over Baldwin and Mepham broke our jinx, and the victory in the middle of the season over Long Beach broke its undefeated season.

This year the Chiefs were sparked by a terrific defense. The front wall, led by Joe Ciminna, George Amato, Tom Ruden, Joe Ingarozza, and Rudy Richardson provided the power for the Chiefs' winning season. The backfield starred Ray Burrows and Ralph Crino.

The prospects for next year look very good with Crino returning. Other hopefuls for next year include Tom Ruden, Art Weber, Russ Meyer, and Al Hutchins.

J. V. Football

Coach ..... Mr. Haas

THE J. V. Football Team led by Frank Scavone and Jim Walsh ended this season with a 34-6 victory over Wantagh to give them a great record of 8 wins and no losses. This record, combined with those of the last two years, gives the Massapequa J. V. Football Teams a total of 22 wins, 1 loss and 1 tie. The most impressive wins this year were beating Oceanside 27-0 and Freeport 20-6.

The backfield was aided greatly by Curt Small and Harold Nelson, while Glen Scott and Charles Castellano dominated the line.

Varsity Soccer

Varsity Coach ..... Mr. Seely
Junior Varsity Coach ..... Mr. Elder

THE Varsity Soccer Squad finished its fourth season with the best record a Massapequa team has produced thus far. The booters, under the tutorage of Coach Jerry Seely, wound up with a 9-5 record, which gave them an undisputed hold on second place. The season was successful in other ways and included many firsts as well. The first player in M. H. S. history to place on the South Shore All-Scholastic Squad was leftwing Jack Ruhs. Other firsts were the successive defeats of Baldwin 4-2 and 7-4, and the trampling of Sewanhaka 9-5.

Standout players were goalies, Doug Glaysher and Nick Wynkoop; fullback, John Sullivan; halfback, Henry Oustecky; and forwards, Gregor Giesmann, Bob Wernersbach and Marty Maltese.

The Junior Varsity Squad, under the guidance of Mr. Elder, achieved a commendable record. Turning in continuously fine performances were goalie, Nick Bambino; halfback, Phil Newman; and forwards, George Yates, Joe Lowery, and George Soerensen.

Varsity Wrestling

Coach ..... Mr. Haas

IN the last few years wrestling has become a major sport in Massapequa High School. This year's fine team has surpassed the previous teams in their won-lost record and in the attendance received at the matches.

Excellent records were turned in by Richard Warnke, Ronald Salzman, Pete Hausrath, and Joe Ingarozza. Jeff Enck, Joe Ciminna, Mike Angstreich, and George Young also contributed greatly to the success of the team.

The outstanding performances of this year's team will help give wrestling the popularity it deserves.

Varsity Track

Coach ..... Mr. O'Sullivan

THE coming of spring introduced another track season. Massapequa has produced some fine runners in the past, but this spring was a season of all-around excellence. Among the returning veterans in the running events were Don Hartung, hurdler; John Morrison, sprinter; Ralph Liguori, half miler; and Dave Buckman, miler. In the field events Doug McDonough and Gary Schumacher, high jumpers; Don Olesen, broad jumper; George Young and Nick Cooper, pole vaulters; Brian Donnelly, shot putter; and George Amato, discus thrower, were ready, willing and able to do their part to crush all opposition.

Basketball

Coach ..... Mr. Pluschau

HEIGHT, ball handling, agility, and speed were all contributing factors in another winning season for the hoopsters. Senior Co-Captains Doug Glaysher and Don Olesen did a fine job in pacing the Chiefs all year long. Glaysher worked well underneath, getting tap-ins and rebounds, while Olesen worked around the keyhole. The main difficulty this year seemed to be the lack of consistency. The "unpredictable Chiefs," as they were called by Newsday, ran hot and cold all year.

A recent innovation in the South Shore Athletic League aided the club. With this new rule a coach may shuffle his players according to ability between varsity and junior varsity levels. This feature also aids in maintaining a seasoned, experienced club from year to year. This year many juniors saw quite a bit of action due to varying circumstances. Because of this action, next year's club should have another winning season.

Varsity Baseball

Coach ..... Mr. Wachsmuth

OUR Varsity Baseball Team enjoyed another successful season. This year's team kept up the tradition of great baseball teams from Massapequa. The pitching staff was led by the returning veterans Roy Wagner, Tony Ambrosio, and Russ Meyer. In the hitting department Al Tobia, Jack Ruhs, and Roy Wagner led the seniors while Skip Ajello and Tom Ruden were the outstanding juniors.

Prospects for next year's team, with the return of Skip Ajello, Tom Ruden, Bill Molloy, Ed Shaar, and Frank Albin, look favorable.

J. V. Baseball

Coach ..... Mr. Payerle

ONE of the basic reasons for the excellent Varsity Baseball Teams which Massapequa High School produces is the superior training the players receive on the Freshman and J. V. Teams. This year's Varsity was aided greatly by the abilities of Skip Ajello, Tom Ruden, and Frank Albin from last year's J. V. Team.

Our J. V. Team this year was sparked by the pitching of Bob Lindsay and Ed Youngling and by the hitting of Jim Walsh and Curt Small.

First row—E. Shaar, F. Albin, D. Dusch, R. Wagner, T. Ruden. Second row—H. Nelson, W. Molloy, A. Ajello, W. Cummings, T. Allo.

V. Gilroy, R. McKiernan, W. Wilson, R. Calhoun, J. Rowe, A. Witt, R. Johnson.

Varsity Golf

Coach ..... Mr. Finger

THE golf team had a successful season in 1960 despite the loss of such outstanding golfers as Vincent Gilroy, Richard McKiernan, and Bill Wilson in 1959. Russ Johnson was the only returning first stringer for the team. With Bob Calhoun, Vic Meyers, and Doug Glaysher to help, Johnson led the team to another season of decisive victories.

Varsity Tennis

Coach ..... Mr. McGee

THE Varsity Tennis Team had an unsuccessful season this year, since the loss of six out of the seven starting players on last year's lineup proved to be too great a loss to overcome. The final record, though, does not tell the entire story. Powers such as Baldwin, Lawrence, and Uniondale defeated the Chiefs by close 3-2 scores. The adept playing of Jules Solnick, Marty Fox, and Bill Mindlin in the singles, and Bill Nichols, Dennis Oleck, Ken Young, and Dick Goodman in the doubles, provided the bulk of the wins this year.

First row—D. Oleck, W. Nichols, W. Mindlin, R. Goodman. Second row—R. Gaither, M. Fox, J. Solnick, K. Young, T. Butts, E. Mullins.

Coach ..... Mr. Cramer

A FEW years ago Massapequa High School organized a lacrosse team. When they first entered varsity competition, disaster followed. Lack of experience led to injuries and a bad record.

But this year's action showed a different story. It was the first year that we had a majority of seniors who had had four years of experience in lacrosse. The seniors Ray Burrows, Rudy Richardson, Bob Berg, Jack Farley, Dick Linzer, and Woody Kennedy were the mainstays of the team that led the Chiefs to an impressive winning season. Some stickmen from this season's team who look promising for next year are Dennis Tyras and Andy Boyar.

Lacrosse is rapidly becoming a major sport at Massapequa and in Nassau County. Because it is a very exciting and interesting sport, lacrosse will be exceedingly popular in a few years and should become a major spectator sport.

Bowling

Coach ..... Mr. Courtemanche

BOWLING, although not a major sport in Massapequa, is greatly enjoyed by all who participate. Early victories this season over Lawrence and Uniondale paved the way for the tougher part of the schedule which followed. The rolling mainstays were Art Schweithelm, Marty Fox, and Fred Schrimpe.

First row—B. Dillworth, M. Fox, F. Schrimpe, E. Lawerence. Second row—R. Hess, A. Schweithelm, W. Brown, J. VonEssen.

Varsity Rifle

Coach ..... Mr. Baldwin

THIS year our rifle team turned in one of its best records with victories over Calhoun and Wantagh. The top marksmen for the team included Russ Johnson, John Ragan, Henry Pfeifer, Dennis Oleck, and Jeff Kanig. Next year's team looks promising with the return of Woody Kissel and Jack Schnurr.

First row—E. Mullins, J. Kanig, P. Laux, J. Logan, H. Pfeifer. Second row—D. Oleck, J. Ragan, S. Kissel, J. Schnurr, R. Johnson, D. Walter, P. Goss, Manager.

Cross-Country

Coach ..... Mr. O'Sullivan

STALWARTS Dave Buckman, Don Olesen, Roy Wagner, and Bob Franke led our Chiefs to a winning season in cross-country. Buckman ran well in the South Shore and County Championships and won a medal in the State Meet. The harriers had a fine record of 6 wins, 2 losses, and a third place in Section I.

Gold Key

THE Gold Key, the highest award given by the Long Island Girls' Association, is presented each year to those girls who have accumulated six hundred points.

Under this point system four awards are given. The first of these is the numeral, which represents a total of one hundred and twenty-five points. The next award is the shield, which is equivalent to two hundred and fifty points. Following this is the block "M" for four hundred points, and finally the Gold Key, the highest award.

In order to obtain any of these honors, a girl must be an active and skillful participant in sports and must endeavor to gain a position on the class and honor teams.

The awards were presented to the girls at the Sports Banquet which was held in June.

Through these awards, a spirit of competition, sportsmanship, and fair-play is created.

Barbara Yankiver, Treasurer; Lenore Piccininni, President; Joyce Blockis, Secretary.

Adviser ..... Miss Lenker

"EVERYONE out of the locker room!" This is one of the many cries used by the members of the Massapequa High School Leaders Club. These girls were not only assistants to the Physical Education Department during classes, but were also kept busy by numerous projects designed to further sportsmanship and interest in athletics.

In the fall the members solicited boosters for the football programs, thus aiding the Dads' Club. Spring brought the Sports Banquet and Sportsnight, two highly successful projects sponsored by the Leaders. The candy sale at sports events was still another activity.

These girls in blue, selected on their leadership and sports ability, were invaluable to the Physical Education Department and an outstanding group at Massapequa High School.

Adviser ..... Miss Lenker

MUCH like the proverbial postman, neither rain, snow, sleet, hail, nor a losing team could dampen the enthusiastic spirit of our cheerleaders. These energetic girls were not even fazed by long practice sessions, stiff muscles, and apathetic bleacherites.

Freezing in their short skirts at football games or sweltering in their uniforms during the basketball season in no way hampered their spirits. They even found time to compose new songs, cheers, and originate novel routines.

This group also sponsored a dance on the last Saturday of the football season. This gala affair celebrated the defeat of our traditional rival, the Wantagh Warriors. "Sophisticated Swing" was chosen as the theme for this year's victory jubilee.

Ready for a good game, the girls displayed both enthusiasm and sportsmanship. Fun was only part of it. Our "sluggers" showed their ability by earning first place in the annual playday.

HONOR

Adviser ..... Mrs. Strothmann

Basketball

"BASKET!" Again our girls score! This year basketball was offered for the first time after school. Received with enthusiasm, it proved to be one of the fastest moving and hardest played sports of the year. Most of the girls started with little knowledge of the sport, but soon acquired an understanding of it. When the season closed, they felt confident enough to challenge the Chiefs.

SENIOR

JUNIOR

Tumbling

Adviser ..... Mrs. Strothman

"ONE, two, three, roll!" Tumbling, one of the most popular sports offered by the girls' Physical Education Department, was a highlight of the year.

The girls not only enjoyed themselves, but, as a feature of Sportsnight, they gave the audience a thrilling show. They rolled, tumbled, flipped, flopped, and dove gracefully and rhythmically to the delight of the spectators.

Twirling

Adviser ..... Mr. O'Shea

COMBINING precision and originality of routines, our twirlers have repeatedly shown outstanding ability at all half-time performances of our football games and in twirling competition.

The twirlers have been chosen Long Island Champions for three consecutive years and have presented our school with more than fifty trophies.

Golf

Adviser ..... Miss Godbold

"FORE!" Golf, the newest addition to the Physical Education program, was unique in that it was the only sport played off campus. Trudging across the course, under the weight of their clubs, the Seniors putted, drove, and sliced their way towards the eighteenth hole. Through able instruction, the girls started as amateurs and finished as "pros."

Tennis

Badminton

Archery

BLUE TEAM—Carol Bain, Co-Captain; Kathy Hanrahan, Captain.

1959 Blue-Gold Poster Contest.

DARKNESS descended and shadows silently crept across the floor. Suddenly the room was flooded with light and transformed into a glorious array of color. Sportsnight had finally arrived and the official entrance by both teams was under way. After a spirited display of songs, cheers, and costumes the girls participated in a number of competitive events, such as marching and calisthenics. The presentation of the trophy to the winning team brought the evening to a thrilling climax.

Although the first impression of Sportsnight is one of intense competition, its true aims are to promote sportsmanship, build friendships, and help provide for the Scholarship Fund.

Barbara,

Although we only met a few months ago, I feel as if I've known you all my life. You are a very special girl, for you have the type of personality that will make friends for you anywhere you may journey. I hope Quirks will turn out for you this summer. Remember the time you slept over & we woke up when we were singing (that's what we call it anyway). I'd like to thank you for making me walk from Belmont Lake to Lisle when the horse stable was closed. My aching legs will remember, for always, how I hope certain things will work out for you on the 29 of June, for my hopeless dreams & lost loves, for my cloudy sunday in the near future, & for you serenading me. Thanks for silencing me from college visits & for everything, don't forget to write to me from college next year.

Love always,
Ellen Anne

ha, ha
you deserve
a doll + I only hope

Barb,

"Lots of luck in all you do in the coming years." Seriously, I feel that you are a wonderful girl and I have sincerely enjoyed constructing a memory in your life. I would pray, if I believed completely in a God, since I don't, I can only hope that whomever the young man that gets your world be worthy of a sweet and very charming young woman.

Love,

Harold M. Graving Jr.
